Reason(s) for the nomination

Melissa is a phenomenal art student. She shows exceptional skill in everything we do. She is willing to help other students and influence learning within the classroom. She always seems to take the lesson to new heights and elevate the project not only for herself, but others through modeling of her own work.

Melissa has a natural talent that exudes in all his artwork. Her use of art principles is superior. Her outlook on design and composition are above grade level. Melissa's use of media is also outstanding and many times outshines other students.

Melissa is an all-around amazing student and artist. She is a joy to have in class and never turns away constructive criticism. She is willing to do everything to be successful in art and her core curriculum classrooms.

Melissa's artwork was selected to be displayed at the county-wide art show. This Artshow houses art from all of the schools within the county. Due to space, we only choose about 30 artworks from our student population of 1,058 students.
