Reason(s) for the nomination

Brooks is one of those students that Every teacher will shed a tear for at the end of the year. She has brought much joy to my art room and my teaching. Brooks spends many hours in my classroom every week.

Brooks visits my classroom every Friday during her recess time to help me work with my 2nd grade students. During her visit she helps students with their artwork and guides them to success. She also created a lesson for my students. Brooks created a lesson dealing with tints and shades. She made sure it was in line with the Gwinnett County Academic Knowledge Standards and even "taught" me how to complete the project. After she "taught" me the project I allowed her to teach the project to an entire class of 2nd grade students. She was amazing! She was able to captivate the students through the lesson and used all art concepts and vocabulary appropriately. I was so proud of her!

Brooks also attends the school's 4th and 5th grade art club on Monday mornings. She always has a willingness to learn and uses this to be successful. Brooks never sees a project as impossible or even hard; she sees them as a challenge or a learning opportunity.

Sometimes Brooks even makes me a little jealous. She is always talking about the new and exciting art she saw over the weekend with her family. She will even debate with me over the artwork she viewed and what it means. She expels a love for art that would make any art teacher proud.
