-Owen is the type of student every teacher loves to have in class: polite, helpful, respectful, kind, intelligent, creative and talented. Owen is a leader in the class in many ways. His focus in art class is very impressive. He pays sharp attention during instruction time and proceeds to work on all his artwork with meaningful, and deliberate thoughtfulness. Owen is a sensitive, compassionate, and responsible student who can always be counted on to excel.

Owen's projects all turn out superior in craftsmanship, excellent in design, arrangement, balance, and exciting in color selections. Owen has a natural talent that shines, but he also soaks up the information being taught. It is clear that he is truly interested in what is being taught, and he takes the ideas and creates outstanding work.
